                              FEDERAL

IMPACT: No Fiscal Impact

Summary of Legislation: This bill provides that postsecondary enrollment opportunities for high school students include concurrent enrollment courses, dual credit courses, and early college programs that allow high school students to receive college credit for successfully completing courses.

The bill replaces existing statutes concerning concurrent enrollment courses, dual credit courses, and early college programs with a single postsecondary enrollment opportunities program.

The bill repeals statutes concerning the Double up Program, High School Fast Track Program for Ivy Tech Community College, and the High School Fast Track to college program for Vincennes University.

Effective Date: July 1, 2013.

Explanation of State Expenditures: The bill should have no fiscal impact. It does not expand the current dual credit opportunities for high school students but simply combines the current separate programs into one program.
